LAW SECRETARIAT.

Furnishing copies of proposals and orders issued by the Managements of all Important Industrial Concerns in the State to the recognised Labour Associations.

ORDER NO. L.S. 3950-60—L.W. 252-51-1, DATED BANGALORE, THE 8TH JANUARY 1952.

It has been brought to the notice of Government that in an important Industrial Concerns in the State, the Management refused to give a copy of the reorganisation order to their Labour Association, although the Association was receiving copies of such orders in the past, and that this refusal was the main cause for a general strike in the Factory and eventual dismissal of a large number of employees, resulting in great loss of production.

In the interests of harmonious relationship betwee Management and the employees and greater producti the country, it is considered necessary that the empl should be taken into confidence and their opinior ascertained before passing any general orders aff the wages or conditions of work of large number o ployees. For this purpose, it is necessary that copi all such proposals and orders should be made availa the employees.

Accordingly, the Managements of all Government- and Aided Industrial Concerns in the State are req that they may in future furnish their recognised L Associations with copies of all such communications.

N. R. JAYA RAO,
Secretary to Governmen
